

African & African American Studies

Fall 2021 Course Offerings

Ask your advisor for details, then register for any of the following courses:

- ❖ ENG/AFAM 242 – African American Literature (Dr. Muneal)
  - ❖ CRJ/SOC/AFAM 375 – Corrections (Dr. Hartman)
  - ❖ ENG/AFAM 444 – Literature for Children & Adolescents (Dr. Clark)
  - ❖ ECO/AFAM 308 – African Americans & The American Economy (Dr. Pegram)
  - ❖ ENG/AFAM 399 – Youth Narratives of the Civil Rights Movement (Ms. Gazda)
-

An interdisciplinary minor in African & African American Studies calls upon the strengths of our faculty and the interests of our students.

Requirements: 18 semester hours (1 core class + 5 electives at designated levels) in any discipline that meets the content-specific nature of the program; previously completed courses that meet the criteria could count towards the minor. *Note: To declare a minor, you must complete paperwork in the Registrar's office.

Speak to or email Ms. Gazda for details (agazda@averett.edu)