AVERETT 101 REFLECTION:

Students will attend the Conference on Freshmen Engagement and Empowerment (COFEE) hosted by the Center for Community Engagement & Career Competitiveness (CCECC). The conference will take place on Averett's Main Campus on Thursday, October 25 from 8:00am-12:00pm.

Students will attend two breakout COFEE TALKS. Please attend at least 1 CAUSE COFEE TALK and at least 1 SKILLS COFEE TALK.

Complete a reflection of a minimum of 1000 words by addressing the questions below.

WHAT?

1. Identify the first CAUSE COFEE TALK you attended.
 - a. What made you interested in this topic or partner?
 - b. What new thing did you learn about this topic or partner?
2. Identify the first SKILLS COFEE TALK you attended.
 - a. What made you interested in this topic or partner?
 - b. What new thing did you learn?
3. Identify the additional COFEE TALK you attended. Was it a CAUSE or SKILLS COFEE TALK?
 - a. What made you interested in this COFEE TALK?
 - b. What new thing did you learn?

SO WHAT?

1. Do you have new feelings, thoughts, or knowledge sparked from the conference?
2. Do you see yourself partnering with anyone that you met today, whether it is a community partner, student, or instructor, in the future?

NOW WHAT?

1. Describe how you could apply skills you learned from the conference to the causes that exist in the Dan River Region? Try to relate your SKILLS COFEE TALK(s) to your CAUSE COFEE TALK(s).
2. What would you like to learn more about in regards to volunteerism and community engagement? Why?
3. Imagine 10-15 years that a newspaper article is published about you. What would you want your headline to read? Why?
