

VIRTUAL AMERICA'S SUNDAY SUPPER OF THE DAN RIVER REGION

JAN 17 SUNDAY 3PM-4:30PM

The Sunday Supper is virtual, due to COVID restrictions, and attendees must register via Zoom before January 15

shorturl.at/mprxG

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
STACEY ABRAMS

Averett University's Center for Community Engagement & Career Competitiveness in partnership with Danville Community College, the Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History, Middle Border Forward, the Commonwealth of Virginia, History United, and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. invite you to attend our annual America's Sunday Supper in celebration of Martin Luther King, Jr. week.

This year's theme, "From Chaos to Community," will begin with a keynote address by former Georgia House Representative and Minority Leader Stacey Abrams and end with a chance for all attendees to engage in a crucial conversation on the need for community-building and volunteerism as necessary tools to address:

RACE RELATIONS, EDUCATION, ECONOMIC DISPARITIES, CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM, POLITICAL PARTISANSHIP & HEALING, COVID'S COMMUNITY IMPACT, FOOD & HOUSING SECURITY, ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS

