

African & African American Studies

Fall 2022 Course Offerings

All Students Welcome!

Ask your advisor for details, then register for any of the following courses:

- ❖ ENG/AFAM 242 – African American Literature (Ms. Gazda)
- ❖ HIS/AFAM 399 – The American South (Dr. Canady)
- ❖ MUS/ENG/AFAM 399 – Music & Literature of the Harlem Renaissance (Dr. Lewis & Ms. Gazda)
- ❖ REL/AFAM 206 – African American Religions (Dr. Coppage)

An interdisciplinary minor in African & African American Studies calls upon the strengths of our faculty and the interests of our students.

Requirements: 18 semester hours (1 core class + 5 electives at designated levels) in any discipline that meets the content-specific nature of the program; previously completed courses that meet the criteria could count towards the minor. Note: To declare a minor, you must complete paperwork in the Registrar's office.

Speak to or email Ms. Gazda for details (agazda@averett.edu)
